On March 13, Governor Brad Little issued a proclamation (attached) declaring a state of emergency in the State of Idaho due to the occurrence and imminent threat to public health and safety arising from the effects of the 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19). For the duration of the emergency declaration related to COVID-19, the Governor has suspended the portion of the Open Meetings Law that requires public agencies to have at least one member of the library board or the library director physically present at the meeting location designated in the meeting notice. All other requirements of the Open Meetings Law remain in place, including providing the public with the ability to attend public meetings by telecommunication devices.

Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) renewal:

Local 4667, Charis Schreiber, began the meeting by handing out a packet for Commissioners that will replace earlier information they presented to Fire Commissioners at the last meeting. She began the discussion on wages and time was given to review and discuss first, the handout she presented.

Other topics discussed in the fifth meeting to renew the Collective Bargaining Agreement included:

- Call-back pay; look at incentive for better call-back
- Compression of wages between ranks
- Foregone and what percentages, if taken, will be applied to which parts of the budget

Fire Commissioners have set Tuesday, July 7th at 4:30pm as the next meeting to continue renewal discussion.
